

UDAIPUR

It is no exaggeration to say that southern Rajasthan is bestowed with a breathtaking abundance of natural beauty and cultural richness. We cover 1300 km weaving a path through stunning countryside on the iconic 500cc Enfield Bullet. Our tour stretches from the remote villages and settlements in the east (Dhadikar and Pushkar) to the romantic city of Udaipur in the south. Often referred to as the 'Venice of the East', Udaipur is one of Rajasthan's highlights - resplendent with its lakes, palaces and museums. From here we visit the colorful town of Bundi before staying in the marvelous art-deco Bhanwas Vilas Palace in Karauli. We end our tour in Alwar, where we stay in a 12th century fort, now a boutique hotel.

The Udaipur 1300 tour boasts truly magnificent hotels, amongst them some of the finest heritage hotels in Rajasthan. The roads are epic and hand picked. Our support team is near at hand at all times and your European tour leader will accompany you on each stage of your amazing journey. In our opinion.....

'india on a bullet is like heaven on earth'

a glance at your day by day itinerary

Day one	You are met at Delhi's international airport and transferred by minibus to our first hotel, the majestic Dhadikar Fort, Alwar. After lunch you meet your motorcycle and support team and spend the early evening exploring the valley on safe, quiet roads before dinner at the Hotel. (15km)
Day two	After breakfast we visit a nearby charity run school which is part of the Nirvana Foundation. This inspiring foundation provides education for children on the fringes of society. After lunch we ride to the waterfall followed by tea at our friends Rajesh's house where we meet the villagers of Hajipur. (30km)
Day three	An early breakfast before hitting the road and heading west on the winding SH13 road which leads to Shapura cutting through the Sariska wildlife reserve. We stop en-route for a two hour safari then continue over the NH8 to Ajeetgarh before heading south on rural roads to Samode Bagh, our luxurious third night's stopover. (155 km)
Day four	Today we head to Kishangarh. We take well surfaced, smaller roads through the villages of Chorum and Renwal before heading south to Jobner, Phulera and Naraina. We hit Dudu before a 25 Km ride on the NH8 Ajmer road to the stunning lakeside Phool Mahal hotel. We arrive in time for a wander round the fascinating palace and gallery. (180 km)
Day five	Today we enjoy a short scenic ride to the holy town of Pushkar. Pushkar is considered deeply sacred to the Hindus and has been drawing pilgrims and travellers to its holy lake and temples and colorful bazaar for hundreds of years. The desert backdrop makes a fabulous place to explore on your motorcycle. We dine with a local family, take a tour of the lake and temples and experience the lakeside prayer ceremony. Our hotel is the magical Seventh Heaven, a 200 year old haveli. (50 km)
Day six	Heading south we take the NH8 road towards Deogarh. We cover some ground on the highway before exiting the main road to pick up a spellbinding backroad at Behroot. We weave through glorious scenes of rural Rajasthani life before rejoining the main road at Bhim. The Deogarh Mahal hotel is a rambling palace, now converted into a beautiful luxury hotel complete with a flower shaped pool and spa. (165km)
Day seven	Udaipur here we come! Once again we take beautiful back roads through the villages of Amet, Rajsamand lake, Nathdwawa, Mavli, Nandrel and Dabok. We reach the city of Udaipur by mid-afternoon. Enjoy a classical evening concert in the palace grounds before dinner. (145km)
Day eight	Day off to explore the Palaces and Lake. A sunset trip to the Monsoon Palace is planned followed by an evening meal at the gorgeous lakeside Amrai Restaurant. (25km)
Day nine	Today we head east to Bassi Fort Palace - a quirky, family run hotel well known for its warm welcome and tasty organic food. We take the NH76 initially before picking up the SH79 to Chittor followed by the SH76 to Bassi arriving in time for a dip in the splendid pool before a buffet dinner. (156km).
Day ten	We continue east to Bundi staying on the tranquil NH27 for most of the ride. Bundi is an ancient and bustling town with a marvellous palace and market. (145km)
Day eleven	Off to Karauli today where we stay at the sumptuous and eccentric 1930s art-deco Bhanwas Vilas Palace. We arrive in time to explore the local town and hotel grounds which include an organic farm and vintage car collection. (150km)
Day twelve	We ditch the motorcycles only after reaching the Dadhika Fort in Alwar for our last night of the tour. (150Km)
